

This block contains line drawings of various archaeological artifacts. At the top left is a large, deep vessel with a wide rim and a narrow neck, featuring horizontal lines on its upper body. To its right are three smaller fragments: a shallow bowl, a fragment with a loop handle, and another shallow bowl. Below these are two more fragments: a long, thin, curved object and a small, rounded vessel with a handle. In the center is a large, shallow, wide-mouthed vessel with a wide rim and a narrow neck. To its right is a small, complex fragment with a central knob and three curved, horn-like projections. At the bottom are two large, deep vessels, similar in shape to the one at the top left, with horizontal lines on their upper bodies. Each drawing includes a scale bar indicating 0 to 3 cm.
