

This block contains line drawings of various archaeological artifacts. On the left, there are three large vessels shown in cross-section, each with a 0-3 cm scale bar. The top vessel has a wide mouth and a bulbous body. The middle vessel is a shallow bowl. The bottom vessel has a more complex shape with a narrow neck. On the right, there are several smaller artifacts: two shallow bowls, two small vessels with handles, a small fragment with a central knob, and a small fragment with a central knob and a handle. Each of these smaller artifacts has a 0-3 cm scale bar.
